AFTERGLOW

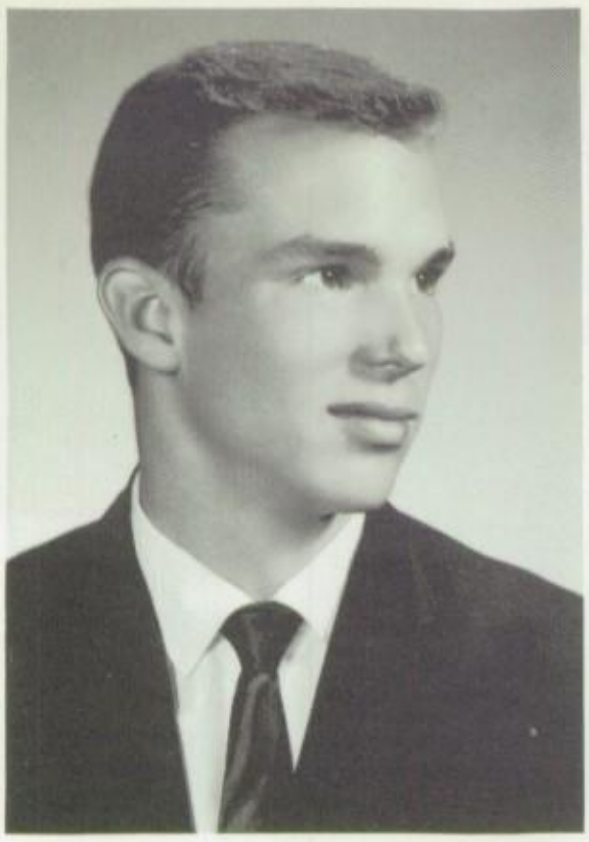
SENIORS

SENIOR CLASS



Steve Miller

Oh, tell me not in mournful numbers, that school is not a place for slumbers.

Barbara Lorenzen

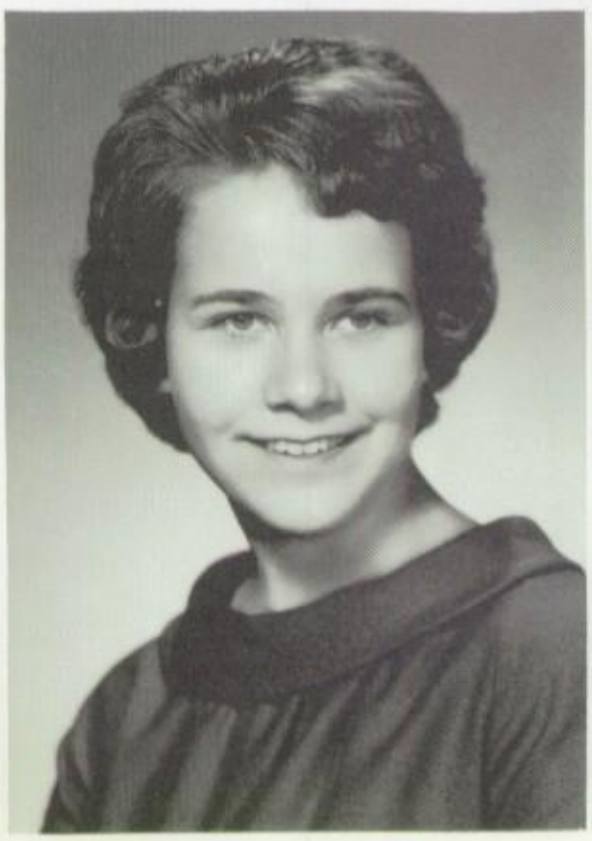
Quiet and gentle is she, but always ready for a merry spree.

Beverly Wallace

The teachers think I am so sweet, I have a line that's hard to beat.

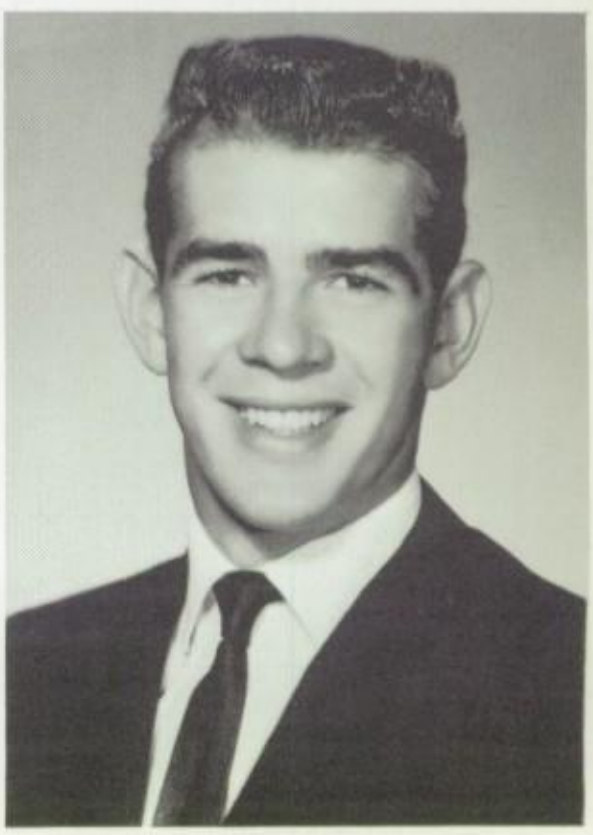
Robert Uhl

Ask me anything, and I will tell you anything.



Janice Madsen

A blush is beautiful, but awfully inconvenient.



Ardell Schmidt

The minds of four of your friends are worth more than your own.

Dorothy Johnson

She speaks, behaves, and acts just as she ought to.

Stuart Petersen

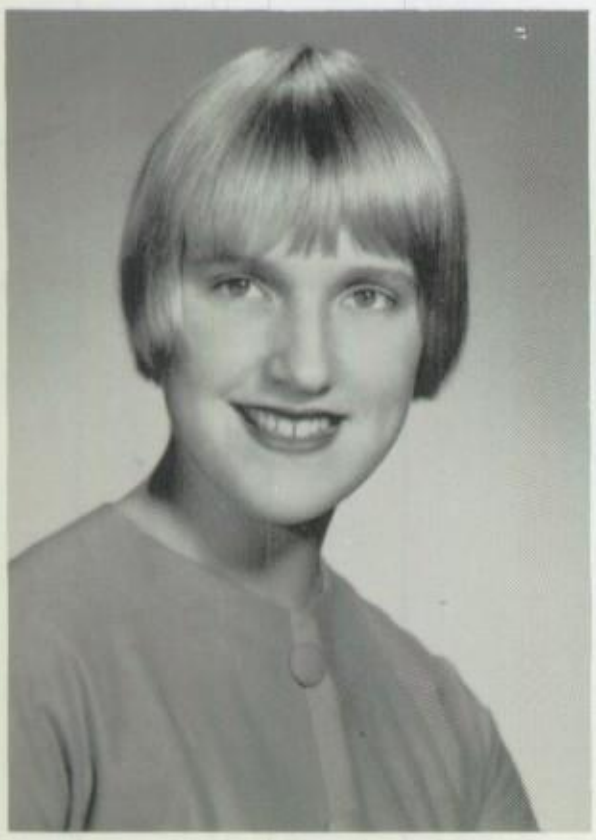
I expect woman will be the last thing civilized by man.

Dennis Schau

If boys were angels, I'd be a girl.

Robert Bean

There are two sides to every argument--my side and the wrong side.

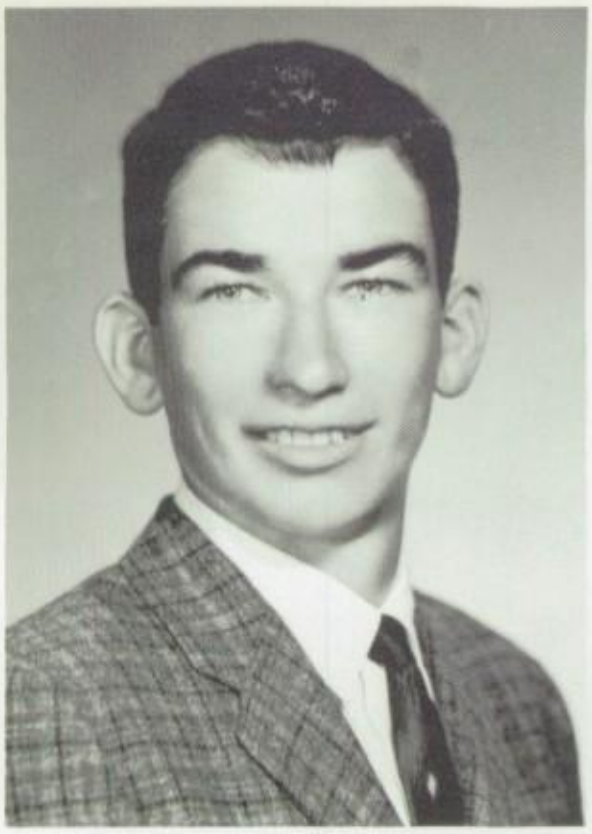


Connie Rogge

I hate sin, but I love the sinner.

Marc Peterson

Success is worth working for.



Wayne Hamann

We'll use a signal I have tried and found far-reaching and easy to yell. Wah-hoo!

Larry Schultz

Like a broken mirror in the sun, I'm full of bright cracks.

Steve Lorenzen

Diplomacy is to do and say the nastiest things in the nicest way.

Judie Fork

Fork--the devil has one too.

Jeannette Sales

A giggle is my echo, and a smile is my shadow.

Wesley Swanger

I have no mockings or arguments; I witness and wait.

Carolyn Bond

Silence is golden, but who wants gold.

James Burow

He came, he went, and he came again.

Dennis Furne

A little learning is a dangerous thing.

John Goodenow

I agree with no man's opinions; I have plenty of my own.

Judi Shough

She thinks twice before she speaks and then says
it.

The short and the tall of it.

Oh, my goodness!

My mother told me there'd be days like this.

It's now or never.

That was the wrong kind of twist.

Higher, girls, higher.

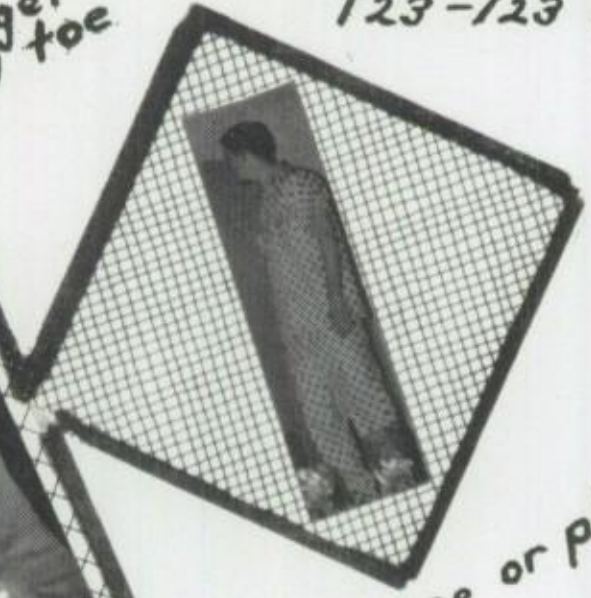
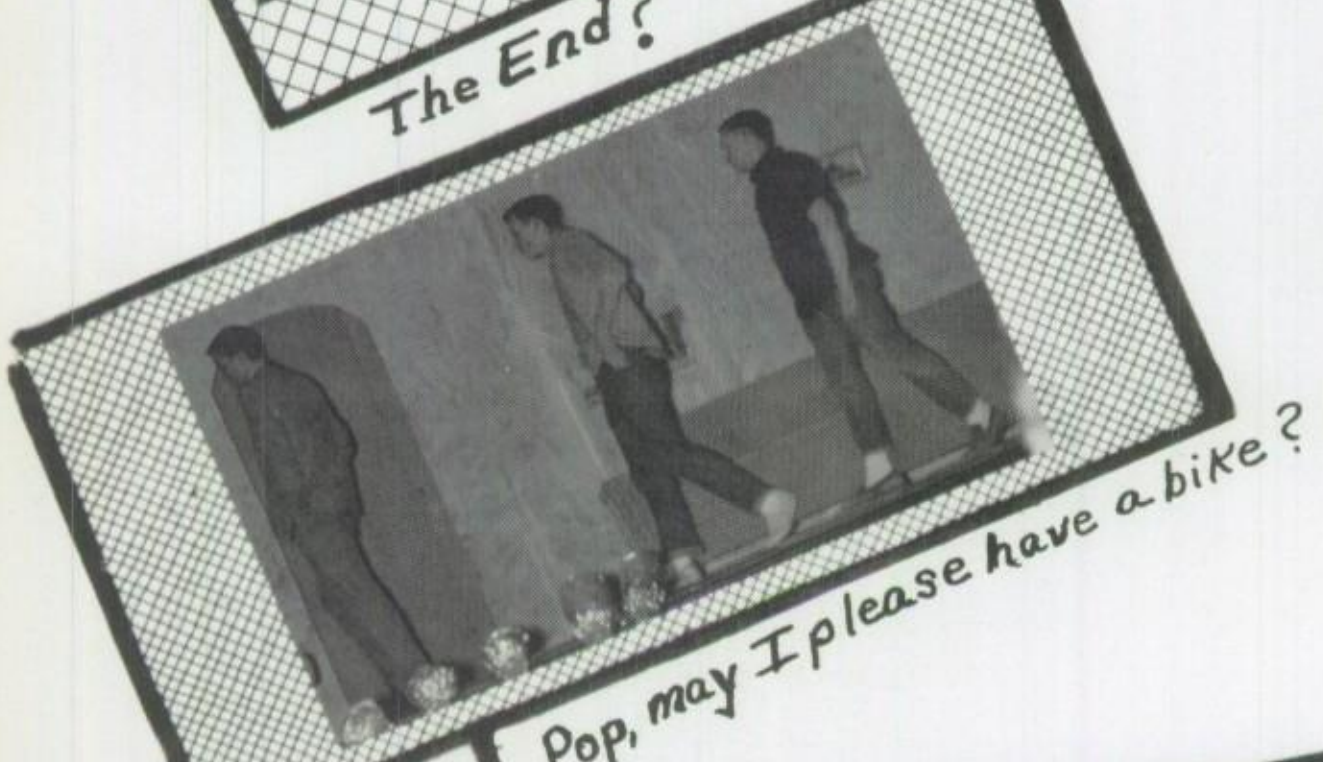
That's what I get for being on the annual staff!

The End?



Bed time or play time?

Give Me —



Pop, may I please have a bike?

Umpa!

I told you we'd loose our heads if we got caught smoking.
